The 1963 Beacon

Foreword

This year was basically the same as any other high school year. We studied - had fun, experienced happy moments of fame and glory. There were sad moments of trial and error. These impressions are only a few that were packed into this year.

It has been the task of the Beacon Staff to record some of these impressions. The Staff, however, has furnished only the outlines of the story. It was you, with your warm smiles and happy recollections that created the ideas.

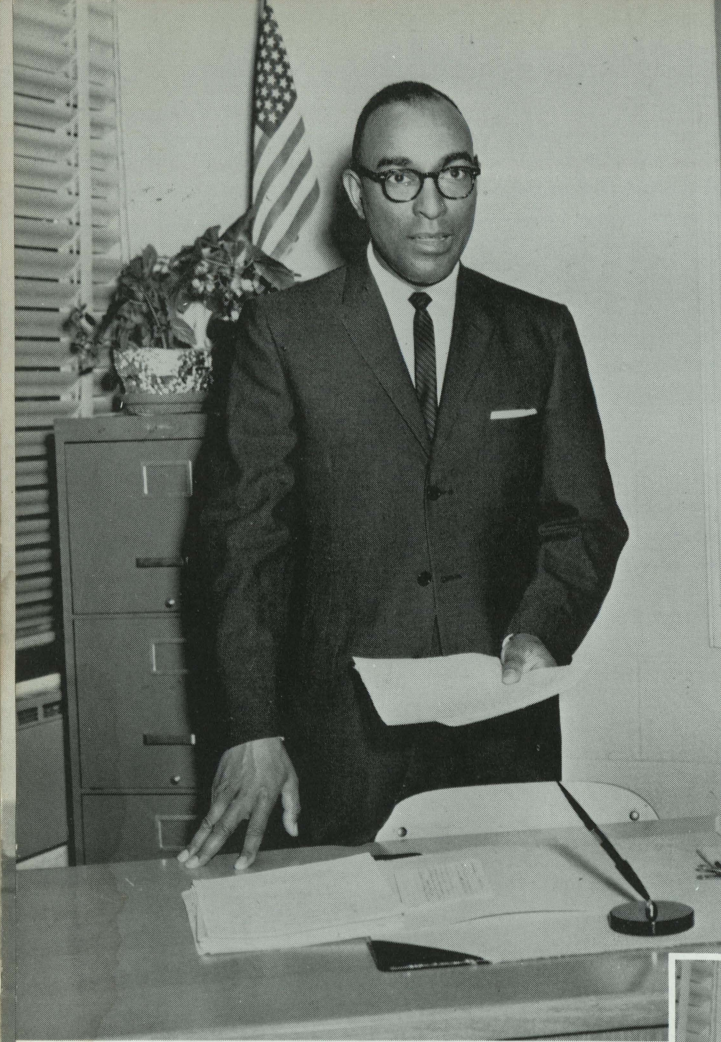

It is not today that you will appreciate the BEACON. Tomorrow, when it is not so easy to think back on 1963, you will treasure the memories this book has stored for you.

The following statement will forever hold true:

"Tis pleasant, sure, to see one's name in print."

THE BEACON STAFF

Dear Mr. Polk and Mr. Johnson,

Mr. James Polk

To you, Mr. James Polk and Mr. William Johnson, we, the members of the class of 1963, dedicate the BEACON in return for the priceless gifts of knowledge and unselfish service you rendered.

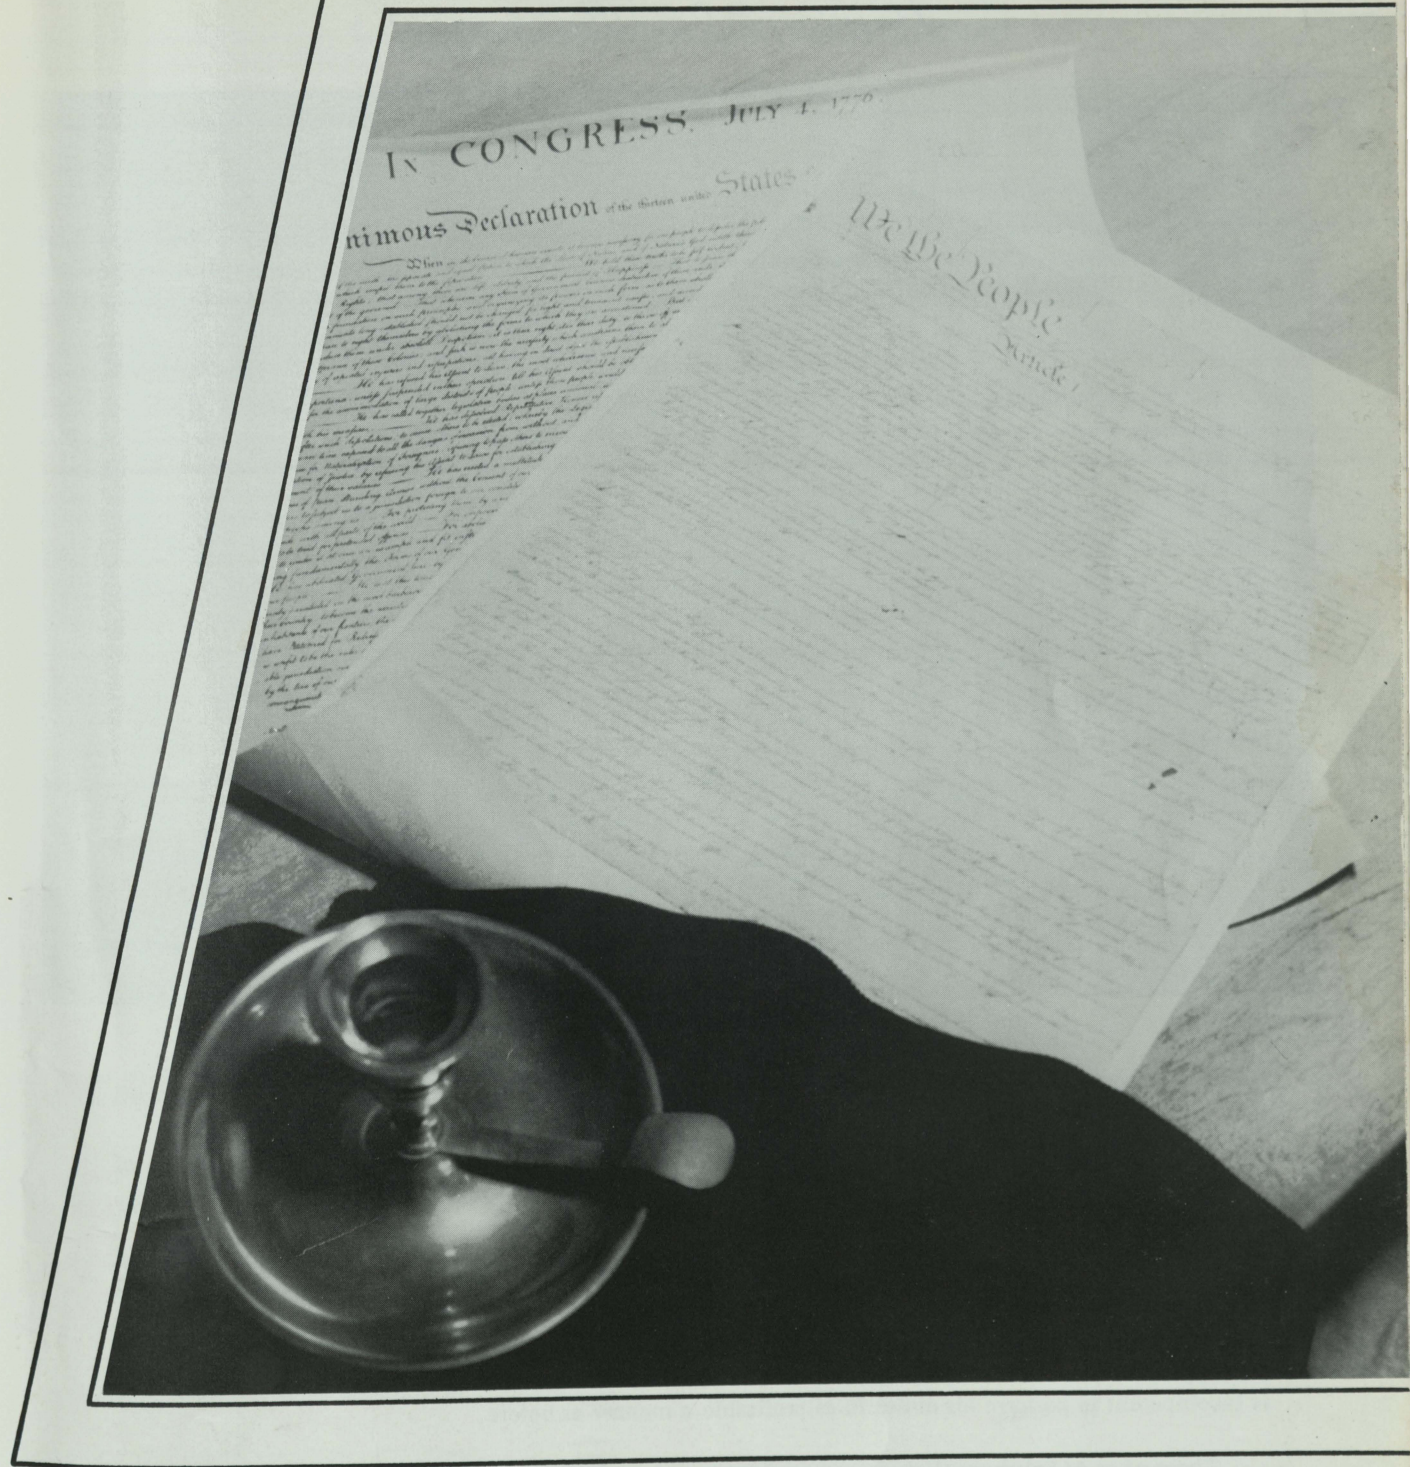

We will remember you not only for your splendid efforts in improving our academic status and advisors to the Student Council and National Honor Society, respectively, but also for your participation in the extra-curricular activities of our school.

We deeply express our appreciation and gratitude for your support.

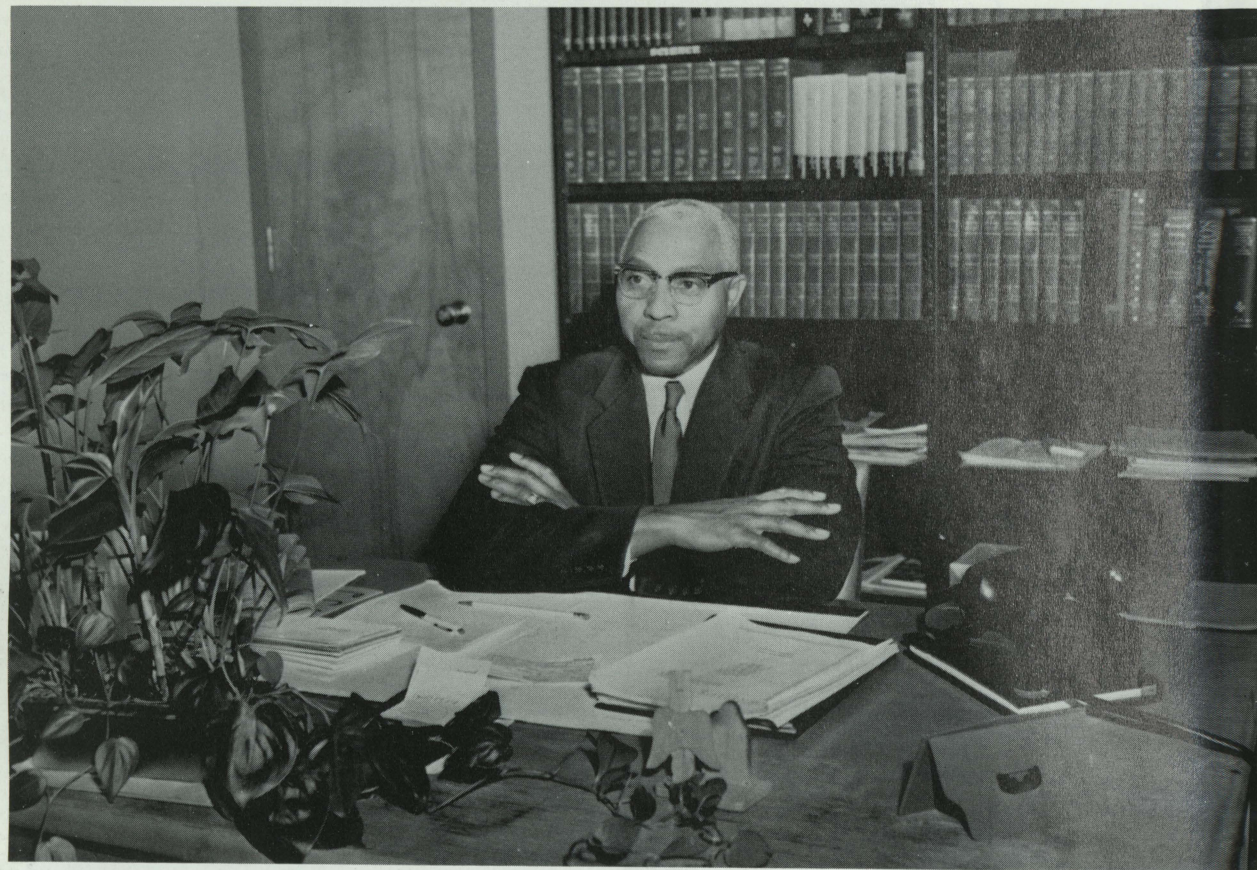

Mr. William Johnson

Principal's Message

To The Seniors -

It is a pleasure to pay tribute to this wonderful group of youth - the Salisbury High School Class of '63.

Youth is the time to work for success. Success has no tomorrow, it is always today, and if the sun sets upon failure it cannot be hoped that it will rise tomorrow upon success, there being nothing to cause it to do so.

Experience demonstrates, in fact, it has become an axiom of science, that after a certain age, one is incompetent to perform his duties in as profitable a manner as before.

Those of us at Salisbury High extend our blessings for happiness and joy as you start your journey for success.

Randolph L. Brooks

Vice-Principal's Message

Dear Class of '63,

It's wonderful to know that you have achieved the goal you set for yourself. Careful planning and hard work is reflected in a job well done. Please add my warmest congratulations to the large chorus of friends acclaiming your graduation. I have followed your high school career with joy and pleasure, and am extending to you a most sincere wish that your journey into the future will be happy and successful.

Sincerely,

W. F. Waller

Superintendent's Message

MR. ROYD A. MAHAFFEY

The time has come for each of you to take your place as an adult citizen of your community. You will find yourself in a world which is torn with indecision and strife. You will also encounter a world which is changing more rapidly than any other time in our history.

We have tried to prepare you for these difficult hurdles which you will face. At the same time, we hope that you will be able to take the problems which will confront you and to consider these a challenge. With the unleashing of the potential of your generation, it is our sincere belief that many of the tasks which face all of us will be solved and that many of the tensions of our present day will be eliminated.

It has been our pleasure to have had you in our school system and to number you among the graduates of Salisbury High School and Wicomico County. Many of your predecessors have done well and have made outstanding contributions to our society. We are sure you will surpass the accomplishments of the past. It is fitting to you and your school that this is true.

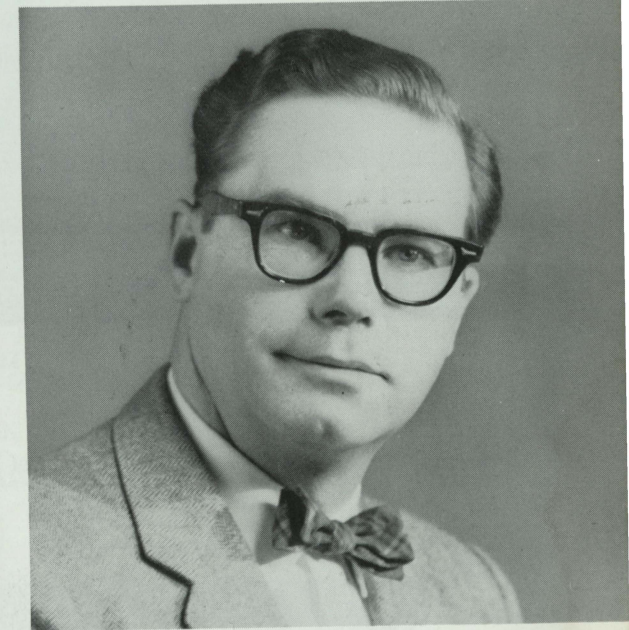

Best wishes to each of you as you enter the fields of work, education, and parenthood. Upon your shoulders rests the future of our country of which we are all most proud and appreciative.

Class History

The spectacular event began in 1957 as more than 200 "rookies" of the Class of '63 took their positions for first base. They had firm and swift footing as they held their ground. The rookies developed into outstanding players through active participation in classwork, homeroom and extracurricular activities.

Ann Tull's participation in the winning "Jabberwock" skits for three years scored a triple. The speaking abilities of teammates Thomas Jones, Odessa Harmon, and James Matthews, were demonstrated in the annual oratorical contest, "The Battle of Words." Yvonne Furniss, "Miss May Queen" of '59, and Yvonne Church, "Miss Physical Education" of '60, were queens of the team.

With such glorious achievements as these, the players on the "star team" advanced to the next base. They slid into second easily with such scholastic "pros" as Yvonne Church, Odessa Harmon, Thomas Jones, Linda Jolly, Phyllis Gale, Maudie Sample, Charles Coulbourne and Bessie Roberts, charter members of the National Honor Society.

Other members developed practical skills that could be transmitted easily to their vocations. Robert Armstrong, Donald Smith, Phillip Coulbourne, David Trader, George Palmer, Milton Moore, Melvin Seldon, Harry Jacobs, Thomas Goslee, and Millard Wilson proved that they were prepared to embark upon their careers through their special projects in automechanics. The girls of the Commercial Department received a standing ovation for the performance in many extra-class duties, such as assisting in the office of the school, selling tickets at the basketball games, and preparing printed programs for various activities.

As our team became more renowned, we gained greater recognition. Two members were chosen to represent our school through different media of communication during American Education Week. Odessa Harmon motivated parents to visit the institution through a radio broadcast, and Violet Mitchell gave her views on "Meeting the Challenge of the Space Age" in a televised panel discussion.

As the players assembled on third base for the final play, many were nominated to the "Hall of Fame" because of their worthwhile contributions to different fields: for CITIZENSHIP . . . Linda Jolly, Thomas Jones, and Tyrone Jackson were recognized for their participation on Girls State and Boys State . . . AGRICULTURE . . . James Nutter was elected president of the NFA . . . MUSIC . . . Lillie McBride and Valeria Burke demonstrated our team's versatility by rendering their vocal services in the All-State Chorus. Yvonne Church was a representative to the All-State Band . . . SPORTS . . . Vaughn Young, Benjamin Rider, Samuel Everett, George Hull, Llyod Rounds, Ronald Collins, Aaron and James Matthews, and Isaiah Oakley were in top standing in their different fields.

On June 6, 1963, 113 veterans finally reached home base. The graduating team left with a perfect record—no strikes, fair play, and hard work. As each member branched out into his own career, the victory was one of honor, grace and dignity.

Class Poem

Now the year is over
Time our common foe,
Takes us from our classrooms.
Alone we must go.

Friends will linger always,
In forms of memories
Memories implanted
In our destinies.

Parents and teachers so dear,
Helped us through our high school years.
Firmly implanted in our souls
A path which led us to our goals.

Ideals, like trees mean nothing
When forced to stand alone.
But here they sprout together
A glen of ideas sown.

In a sense the year is over
Soon we'll leave behind,
Teachers dear and friendships, too,
We hope again to find.

Class Song

(Tune: Moon River)

I

Salisbury, time has come to go.
We hate to leave you so, you know
Dear Salisbury, indeed, we'll miss you
Wherever we're going, we'll think of you there.

II

Dear teachers, and our classmates, too.
Our principal and all, adieu.
We're hoping you'll all remember us.
While waiting round the bend,
Dear thoughts to you we send.
Salisbury - so long.

III

Salisbury, time has come to go.
We hate to leave you now, you see.
We're hoping you'll all remember us.
While waiting round the bend,
Our thanks to you we send.
Salisbury - Good-bye.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1963, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills or promises by us at any time heretofore made, or mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

Although, being as psychologically complex as befits a Senior Class, we consist of one hundred eleven separate and distinct entities. We feel that our brilliant record and our unusual achievements will live after us, and in this manner do we dispose of our possessions.

- Item: We give and bequeath, without reservation to the Junior class, our importance and wisdom, we hope said gifts would be of use in overcoming their present inertia.
- Item: To our good friends, the Sophomore Class, we leave our patience. It will be found useful as the only means by which they can endure the Junior.
- Item: To the unsophisticated Freshmen, we leave a map of the building, so that they will not get lost and roam about in everybody's way.
- Item: To our dear old school building itself, we leave the peaceful quiet caused by our absence and any apple cores, wads of gum, or crumpled notes we may have left behind.
- Item: To our Principal, we give and bequeath a sense of relief that we have at least been graduated.
- Item: To our teachers, we bequeath our valuable sense of humor which we will so much to make school endurable to them.
- Item: To the Glee Club, and Band, our ability to watch the leader and the audience at the same time.

Besides these requests, we leave our best wishes to any and all who may desire them.

Finally, we do hereby name and appoint as the sole executor of this our last will and testament two of our class advisors: Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. Chipman.

In witness whereby, we, the Class of 1963, the testator, have set our hand and seal on this 6th day of June in the year 1963.

The Mighty Eagle

Hail to thee, mighty eagle!
Master of heroic arts,
Hail to thy great spirit,
That enlightens many hearts.

High is thy realm of dignity
Centered on unfading pride -
Many are thy foes encountered,
Unfurled and diligently tried.

No rival can match thy power
Or avert thee from thy flight.
No shadow can harm thy spirit
For victory is thy delight

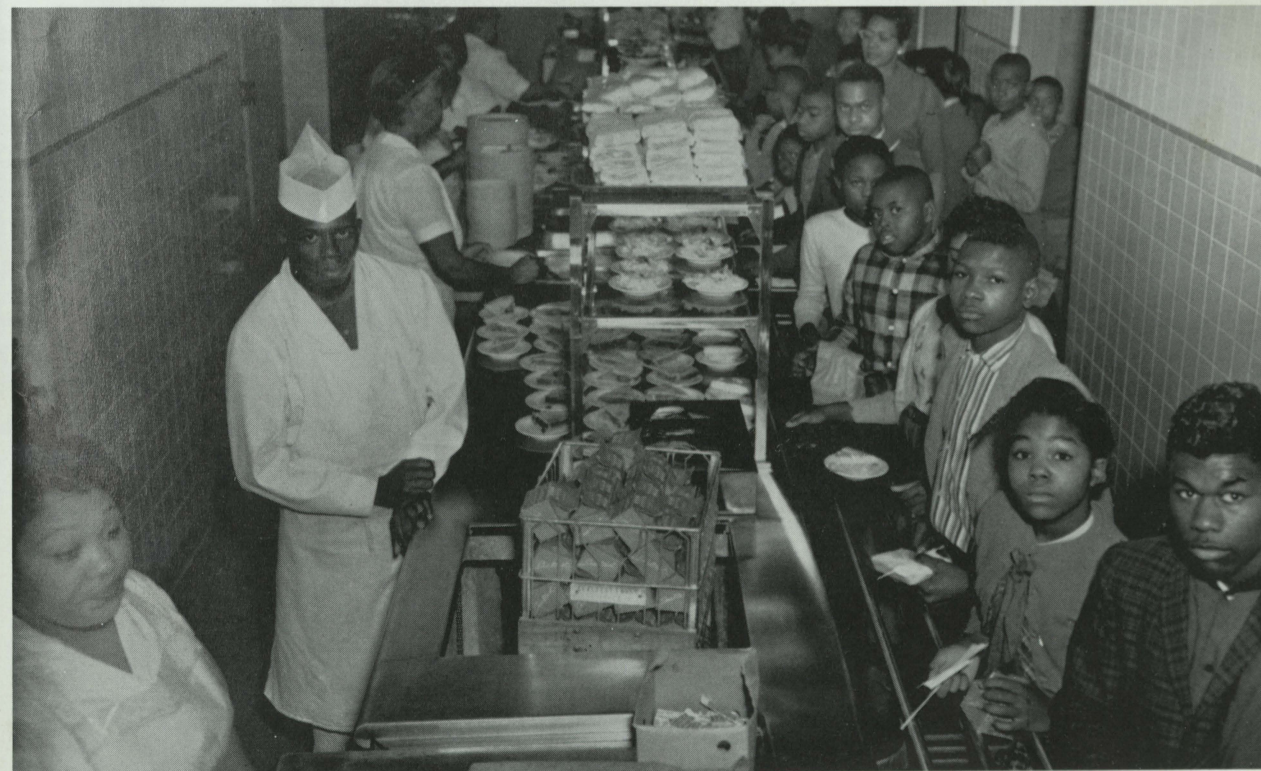

Soar on, O mighty eagle!
Master of thy great dome,
Soar on, to unveil the power
And pride of thy great home.
